Prescribed Reading & Pre-Work:

- Please contact us to arrange to receive the Jenny Rogers prescribed book at least 3 weeks prior to the programme. The Programme Guide is vital pre-reading, and will guide you through the preparation work. It is on the website, in the Programme Materials section. You will need a password to access this, which we will give you as soon as Registration received and payment made.

T's and C's and other important Information:

- The programme is run on-line. The richness of the programme is in the triadic coaching practices, many observed by ICF Observer Coaches. There is time to practice, to practice together with observer coaches, and to read, and to integrate your learning over the five months of the programme.
- As much as possible of the content has been made available to participants to do as self-study, in your own time. The asynchronous elements of the programme total 29 hours. In addition you need to allow for coaching practice and one group assignment, and your own reading and journaling.

Attendance:

- ICF requires 100% attendance.
- It is not possible to miss zoom sessions as participants train together with an ICF observer coach.

Cancellation Policy

- Cancellations up to three weeks before the programme will receive a full refund. Cancellations after that period, up to a week before, will attract a refund of 50% of the fee. Cancellations within a week of the programme will not receive any refund.
- Substitutions are possible, and need to be agreed with Eileen and Kerrin prior to the course.
